PRISONER CONSENT FORM AND FINANCIAL CERTIFICATE

I, _____, plaintiff/petitioner in the above-entitled action, understand that:

1. If I submit a petition for writ of habeas corpus in this court, the filing fee is $5.00. I must pay such fee if my current prison account balance is $25.00 or more. I must request an authorized official to complete the attached Financial Certificate and I must attach a print-out reflecting all transactions in my inmate bank account for the full six (6) month period of time preceding the filing of this petition. [See paragraph 2(a)].
2. If I submit a civil rights complaint or other civil action, the filing fee is $402.00. If my current account balance is more than $402.00, I will not qualify for in forma pauperis status and must pay the full $402.00. If I qualify for in forma pauperis status, the $52.00 administrative fee will be waived and I will only be liable for $350.00. I must request an authorized official to complete the attached Financial Certificate and I must attach a print-out reflecting all transactions in my inmate bank account for the full six (6) month period of time preceding the filing of this complaint.
3. If I submit an appeal in a civil case, the filing fee and docketing fees are $505.00. If my current account balance is more than $505.00, I will not qualify for in forma pauperis status and must pay the full $505.00 filing/docketing fee. I must request an authorized official to complete the attached Financial Certificate and I must attach a print-out reflecting all transactions in my inmate bank account for the full six (6) month period of time preceding the filing of this complaint.

(a) If I have not been incarcerated at my current institution for six months, I must obtain an account statement from each facility at which I have been confined during the relevant six month period of time. Failure to submit the required account statements may result in the denial of this in forma pauperis application.

(b) Pursuant to the Prison Litigation Reform Act of 1995, 28 U.S.C. § 1915 (as amended), even if I am granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis, I must pay the entire $350.00 filing fee (district court) or $505.00 filing/docketing fee (U.S. Court of Appeals) in full. I AM OBLIGATED TO PAY THE ENTIRE $350.00 or $505.00 FILING FEE REGARDLESS OF THE DISPOSITION OF THE DISTRICT COURT CASE OR APPEAL (including dismissal).

(c) If I am allowed to proceed in forma pauperis, I may still be required to submit an initial partial filing fee. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(1). My failure to submit an initial partial filing fee, if assessed, may result in the dismissal of this case and the inability to proceed in forma pauperis in the future.

(d) The officials at the institution at which I am presently confined or any institution to which I may be transferred are hereby authorized to make additional monthly payments from my account until the balance of the $350.00 filing fee is paid. These additional monthly payments will be up to 20% of all the preceding month's deposits in my account. Institution officials shall submit these monthly payments directly to the Court whenever the funds in my account exceed $10.00. I recognize my responsibility to alert officials at any institution to which I may be transferred in the future of my obligation to pay the full amount of the filing fee. I acknowledge that the Court may, from time to time, require me to provide additional financial records or account statements.

The clerk's office will not make electronically available documents that have been sealed or otherwise restricted by court order.

You should not include sensitive information in any document filed with the court unless such inclusion is necessary and relevant to the case. If sensitive information must be included, the following personal data identifiers must be partially redacted from the document, whether it is filed traditionally or electronically: Social Security numbers, financial account numbers, dates of birth, the names of minor children, and home addresses of parties. Disclosure of financial account and real property information in public electronic records, as is necessary to properly identify property in foreclosure and forfeiture proceedings, is an allowable exception.

In compliance with the E-Government Act of 2002, a party wishing to file a document containing the personal data identifiers specified above may

- (a) file an unredacted document under seal, or

2. Medical records, treatment and diagnosis;
3. Employment history;
4. Individual financial information; and
5. Proprietary or trade secret information.

Counsel are strongly urged to share this notice with all clients so that an informed decision about the inclusion of certain materials may be made. If a redacted document is filed, it is the sole responsibility of counsel and the parties to be sure that all pleadings comply with this notice requiring redaction of personal data identifiers. Likewise, counsel and the parties will be solely responsible for any unredacted documents filed. The Clerk's Office will not review documents for compliance with this notice, seal on its own motion documents containing personal identifiers, or redact documents, whether filed electronically or on paper.

¹Remote electronic access to pleadings filed in civil social security cases is limited to counsel of record and court staff. Non-parties have direct access to the pleadings on file at the Clerk's Office
